Clergy & Parishes of Waterford & Lismore and Ferns

Updated by Rev. Iain Knox

In the 19th century and earlier part of the 20th century a number of people produced succession lists of the different dioceses of the Church of Ireland. The best known of these were Canon James Leslie of Kilsaran and Henry Cotton, Dean of Lismore. In recent times considerable work has been done to update and publish Leslie's succession lists. In the case of Waterford & Lismore, it was Rev. H. Rennison, not Leslie, who was working on this diocese. Rennison's book contained only lists of clergy in parishes and no clerical biographies.

This new book will contain:

- ‡ Details of 2,000 clergy with biographical notes
- ‡ Photographs of the churches in use
- ‡ Brief histories of the dioceses of Waterford & Lismore and Ferns, and histories of some of the parishes.
- ‡ The book also contains a facsimile of Leslie's work on Ferns

The price per copy will be €75/£50 on publication but a pre-publication subscription price of €60/£40 is offered. Subscribers names will be included in a special list in the book.
