Founded in 1956, the Ulster Historical Foundation is one of the principal genealogical research agencies in Ireland and a leading publisher of quality historical and genealogical books.

The Foundation is an educational non-profit organisation. Our aim is to encourage an interest in the history of the province of Ulster; promote a positive image of Northern Ireland overseas; strengthen the links between Ireland and those of Ulster descent; broaden access to historical documents and records for Irish and Scots-Irish genealogy; and to inspire pride in our heritage and culture.

Our membership association – called the Ulster Historical and Genealogical Guild – enables friends and supporters to belong to a growing body of like-minded individuals interested in family history, developing a lasting connection to Ulster and Ireland, and which brings people together from all over the world in their quest to discover Irish and Scots-Irish Ancestors.

Ulster Historical Foundation is entirely self-funded. We depend on the support of our customers and members to continue to provide the range of services that we offer.

Meet the speakers

GILLIAN HUNT is Research Officer with the Ulster Historical Foundation and manages the Foundation's many genealogical activities. She teaches genealogy classes across Northern Ireland and has spoken in Britain, Ireland, Australia, New Zealand and North America, co-presenting our annual North American lecture tours since 2014.

FINTAN MULLAN has been Executive Director of the Ulster Historical Foundation since 2001. He has extensive experience in Irish family history research and publishing, hosting genealogy conferences, courses and events, and is a regular international speaker on Irish genealogy.

Gillian Hunt (third right) with Eileen Pironti, Melanie McComb, and Ginevra Morse from the New England Historic Genealogical Society (NEHGS) at a joint programme in Manchester NH, October 2018

North American lecture tours

Ulster Historical Foundation has been bringing its historical research expertise and knowledge of Irish archives to North America since 1979, delivering Irish and Scots-Irish genealogy programmes through our annual lecture tours.

The Foundation is the only Irish historical research organisation undertaking regular and extensive family history lecture tours overseas (mainly USA and Canada but also Australia, New Zealand and in Britain). The presenters are from one of Ireland's foremost genealogy research organisations and one of the few agencies within the British Isles to travel regularly to share its knowledge, skills and enthusiasm for Irish archives with American and Canadian audiences.

Our workshops are in-depth and highly educational programmes. Offering full-day and half-day or evening programmes, the speakers deliver presentations on a wide-range of Irish historical and genealogical subjects. The seminars provide very practical and detailed information on how to trace your Irish and Scots-Irish ancestors.

Executive Director, Fintan Mullan, Williamsburg VA,
March 2015

The sessions help the beginner and the seasoned genealogist alike: from the basics (for those new to Irish genealogy) to guidance and research tips on utilising obscure and unusual archival sources for 17th- and 18th-century research. Moreover our programmes are of value to researchers, no matter where your ancestors originate on the island of Ireland.

Gillian presents a 'Causeway tartan' tie to door-prize winner, Memphis TN, March 2014

These expert sessions demonstrate how to get the most out of Irish resources and records, provide strategies for breaking down brick walls, and provide important historical context that may help fill in gaps in your research. The programmes include 'Solving your brick-walls' – a practical internet tutorial where the speakers use online resources and their local knowledge to offer participants tips and specific advice about their personal research interests.

Check out our website to see our full tour schedule at: <https://www.ancestryireland.com/usa-lecture-tour-2023/>

If you belong to a group that would like to invite the Foundation to deliver a genealogical research programme in your area, please contact the Executive Director, Fintan Mullan, at: enquiry@uhf.org.uk

All of our events are open to the general public as well as members of the host organisations. Our staff are happy to travel to any location where we are invited to speak and can offer a wide range of lectures which we tailor to suit a group's specific needs or interests.

Fintan, Omaha NE, March 2018

Meet our hosts

The Foundation's lecture tours in North America would not be possible without the support of our hosts. By inviting our staff to deliver programmes in their locality the organisations we work with – genealogical and historical societies, public and specialist libraries, churches, Irish and Scots-Irish groups, even interested private citizens who are friends of the Foundation – are to be congratulated for encouraging interest in Irish and Scots-Irish family history amongst their members and users. We wish to thank them for supporting the Foundation's outreach work.

Ulster Historical Foundation is one of the leading publishers on the island of Ireland and as far as production values are concerned, is second to none for the quality of its books.

We have hundreds of Irish history and genealogy books and eBooks available on our bookstore: www.booksireland.org.uk

Recommended reading

We have created a special area of our online bookstore to list all of the books that were recommended or mentioned by the speakers, Gillian and Fintan, during the presentations. This will save participants from having to search for the titles individually on our website. Details of the recommended reading can be viewed here: <https://www.booksireland.org.uk/store/recommended-reading>

Genealogical and historical research services

Have you hit a brick wall in your family history research?
Have you exhausted the different online avenues and need expert genealogical advice and assistance?

Let us do the hard work for you! The Foundation offers expert genealogical advice through our comprehensive range of professional research services to assist you in your family history research. These include:

- Personal face-to-face consultations –

a consultation with a member of our experienced research team could save you a considerable amount of time and increase your chances of research success.

- Initial research assessments – An initial assessment explores the feasibility of archival research by identifying sources of potential relevance for your family history.
- In-depth archival research – Whether you are at the start of your family history journey or have been researching for years; utilising original sources in the archives we can provide a detailed report of your ancestral history.
- Specific archival research – If you have specific research that you would like to have carried out, for example a particular Church register, we can do this research for you.
- Document retrieval – If you need a specific record from our local archives, which you cannot access remotely yourself, we will find and copy it for you.

'I have just received your incredible report. I want to thank you for all your amazing research. You have not only done a wonderful report, you and your researchers (angels) have filled a huge hole in my mother's heart and soul. We are so grateful to you all.'

Barbara McByrne,
Irving, USA

'I can honestly say that the Ulster Historical Foundation was the only organisation to make any progress in my family research.'

Irish genealogy essentials

Your Questions Answered

The Foundation offers the most comprehensive Irish family history focused genealogy course available in the UK and Ireland.

Our Irish Genealogy Essentials course embraces the unique nature of Irish family history research. It is ideal if you:

- Have no experience with genealogy or family history research
- Have some experience with research, but want to develop your skills and knowledge further
- Consider yourself a more experienced genealogical researcher who wants to learn new techniques and lesser known sources.

Prof. Sir George Bain
(UHF Trustee)
speaking at the ceremony to award
course certificates,
September 2017

Our online Irish Genealogy Essentials course will help you get to grips with research techniques, archives and genealogical sources in Ireland; provide you with the information and skills to further explore your family history and help you find your elusive Irish and Scots-Irish ancestors.

This course consists of:

- 21 pre-recorded lectures on essential topics relating to Irish genealogical research (over 28 hours of content)
- Four live “Q and A” sessions/Tutorials with the course lecturers (to be scheduled at different times to suit different time zones)
- Downloadable lecture handouts and reading list

The course will cover topics such as Irish land divisions; nineteenth and early twentieth century census returns; church records; civil records; Griffith’s Valuation; tithe applotment books; wills and testamentary papers; landed estate records; school registers; and of course information on the archives and libraries in Ireland; plus much more!

Upcoming courses

- 22 November 2022–17 January 2024

The Giant's Causeway, Co. Antrim

Our membership association, the Ulster Genealogical and Historical Guild, was established in 1978 to provide a forum for the Irish and Scots-Irish genealogical community to share their knowledge with other researchers across the world.

It is designed to give local and family historians access to a range of specialist resources and services that you will find invaluable in your quest to complete your research. Benefits of membership include:

Publications

Guild members receive two annual publications – Familia: Ulster Genealogical Review and the Directory of Irish Family History Research. Guild members are welcome, indeed encouraged, to make submissions for publication in Familia and the Directory.

Share your research interests

A key attraction of membership is to have your own research interests shared with other members through our annual Directory as well as on an online searchable database. Members can place up to six research interests for free, and include names, dates, locations and occupations.

St Patrick's grave, Downpatrick, Co. Down

Product discounts

Guild members enjoy huge discounts on our products and services:

- At least 50% off all baptism/birth, marriage and death/burial records on www.ancestryireland.com.
- Free access to over 200 member-only databases, many covering all of Ireland; and free access to our research library in Belfast.
- Free access to over 50,000 gravestone inscriptions and to History of the Irish Parliament online.
- 15% off the Foundation's publications.
- Discounts on research consultations and initial assessments as well as privileged access to the Foundation's research expertise.
- Discounted attendance at our family history courses.

Access to our members' area at www.ancestryireland.com/membership

The online members' area contains over 160 articles from previous issues of Familia 1985–2020 and further articles on research and guides to sources.

Celebrate Ulster's heritage: educational and social events

Even though Ulster and Scotland are just 13 miles apart, the story of the close connections can be hard to find in most museums. Here at the Discover Ulster-Scots Centre you can discover thousands of years of history, from the formation of the Giant's Causeway (which links County Antrim with the Western Isles of Scotland) right up to the present day.

- the exhibition panels cover ten major stories, starting with the arrival of Edward Bruce in 1315
- the Montgomery gallery which showcases the role of Ulster-Scots in the development of the United States of America
- the language and literature area gives examples of Ulster-Scots publishing, as well as words most people use every day
- a large journey planner map highlights other Ulster-Scots places to visit
- display cases feature rare artefacts and publications
- free literature showcasing history, language and culture, much of which isn't available elsewhere
- gift shop offering books, CDs and a collection of other items

The Centre is located within the historic Belfast Corn Exchange building which dates from 1852. In 1859 the Corn Exchange hosted a major Robert Burns centenary event which was attended by Burns' descendants who lived in the city.

The Centre also hosts a range of events during the year, so keep an eye on our events programme to see what's on next.

So why not drop in next time you're in Cathedral Quarter? Our friendly and knowledgeable staff will answer any questions you have and will give you advice on other places to visit.

The Irish religious censuses of the 1760s Catholics and Protestants in eighteenth-century Ireland

edited by Brian Gurrin, Kerby A. Miller and Liam Kennedy

ISBN 978-1-906865-29-0, xxiv + 492 pp, €80, 2022,
A4 format

This edition presents parish-level returns from the two national religious surveys conducted in Ireland during the 1760s — by the hearth-money collectors (1764–5) and the parish ministers of the Established Church (1766). Data are presented for over 1400 parishes, some including information on households. Organised by administrative divisions and including colour distribution maps for each county, they provide a wealth of demographic and social information for late eighteenth-century Ireland. The sources on which these data are based are scattered in large and small repositories across Ireland and this is the first time they have been brought together in one volume. The religious estimates for this period provide a link between the population data provided by the poll tax survey of 1660 and that of the 1831–4 report on religious numbers and religious observance.

The Census of Elphin

edited by Marie-Louise Legg

ISBN 978-1-874280-73-6, €75, 2004

The census of the diocese of Elphin is an important historical document that bridges a gap in the records for many parts of the west-midlands for this time period. Organised by Bishop Edward Synge in 1749 the census covers 69 parishes as well as the major towns of Sligo, Roscommon, Boyle and that part of Athlone that is in county Roscommon. An electronic version of this document is available to search through the Findmypast website. Please note that accessing detailed records attracts a charge.

A census of Ireland circa 1659 with essential materials from the Poll Money Ordinances, 1660–1661

edited by Seamus Pender

with a new introduction by William J. Smyth

ISBN 978-1-874280-15-6, €75, 1939 & 2002

The '1659 Census', an abstract of poll-tax returns, is one of the most comprehensive and accessible of the 'survey' documents from the mid-seventeenth century. It provides data for most counties in Ireland.

8.—PERSONS TRANSPLANTED IN IRELAND, A.D. 1655-1654.

(a). TRANSPLANTERS' CERTIFICATES.* (VOL. I. R. 10. 123.)

In the compilation of this Return we have consulted the only three Volumes extant in the Public Record Office, Dublin, on this subject; namely, the Volume (a) there marked I. E. 10. 123; (b) that marked I. C. 5c. 126; and (c) that marked I. C. 5c. 127. The names mentioned in each of these three Vols. are given in this Return under their respective headings. The Vol. (a), which is No. 56 in our Running Number in the Catalogue of the Commonwealth Records, p. 234 note, includes the City of Limerick; and the Baronies of Bismallock, Henry, Connello, Coghlan, Ownybeg, Coughan, Coonagh, Smalltowny, Pubblestrian, and Cianwilliam, in the county Limerick. The following are the names mentioned in the Index of that Vol.:

* Certificates: Unlike the other two Volumes of "Transplanters' Certificates" above marked (b) and (c) respectively, the names in this (a) Volume are not collected in a Table of Contents; but the names of the Persons Transplanted and the names of their servants are indiscriminately given in the Index of the (a) Vol. from which we quote the names entered in this Return. The names in (b) and (c) Returns, given respectively infra next after this, are those of "Persons Transplanted" only.

† Limerick: The Records of the Persons Transplanted from any county in the Province of Ulster are not forthcoming.

‡ FitzGarrett: Here the proper name is "Thomas Arthur, son of Garrett"; and, in similar cases in this Return, the name in the parenthesis is that of the father of the person mentioned. The prefix De is the French representative of the Irish Mac; as the French De is the equivalent for the Irish prefix O'. But in the Commonwealth period, and even later, some Irish families considered it more "fashionable" to omit the prefix Mac, and to employ in its stead its French equivalent De.
